Marriott Vacations Worldwide Corporation Introduces Exciting New Destination Experiences for Owners, Members and Guests of Select Vacation Ownership Brands with New Relationship with PlacePass

ORLANDO, Fla. – April 15, 2019 – Marriott Vacations Worldwide Corporation (NYSE: VAC) announced today a new relationship with PlacePass, an online marketplace for travelers that brings thousands of tours and activity options to Owners, Members and guests of select vacation ownership brands around the globe. Whether on vacation or enjoying a local attraction near their home, Owners, Members and guests will have access to these new leisure experiences meant to inspire and fulfill their vacation dreams. Owners, Members and guests of Marriott Vacation Club, Marriott Vacation Club Pulse, Sheraton Vacation Club, Westin Vacation Club and Vistana Signature Experiences can conveniently plan their vacation activities in advance of arriving at their resort through a link in their reservation confirmation email.

Owners, Members and guests of these vacation ownership brands are now connected to a selection of fun activities where they can choose from exciting local adventures and entertainment events to enriching historical excursions that enhance the way they like to vacation. Whether looking for sumo wrestling classes in Tokyo, skip-the-line tickets at the Eiffel Tower or a custom wine tour in Cape Town, PlacePass has choices for every traveler. Additional options include outdoor adventures, private tours, walking and biking tours, shows and live events, theme parks, wellness activities and more available for purchase with most major credit cards. PlacePass offers a seamless booking process and around-the-clock customer support.

PlacePass contracts with a select group of leading tour and activity companies that are chosen carefully for their value, quality and track record of delivering great experiences. Pricing on PlacePass tours and activities varies based on location, duration, number of guests and time of year. Tours and activities offered will often include transportation, event tickets, entry fees or sometimes food and beverages.
